2) Absolutely no dogs.

3) Do not bring children that require a babysitter without also bringing the babysitter. Do not allow any children to play in any area where there is horse traffic, or in any paddock or riding ring. No one of any age is allowed to run in the barn, screech, scream, clap or do anything else that will spook a horse, without reasonable cause. You are responsible for yourselves, guests and children. Owners of animals are exclusively allowed in the paddock areas and riding areas. Guests and children should not be present in these areas unless they are working with an animal.

4) No screaming, yelling, running or disruptive behavior.

5) You may use your own farrier or vet, or you may use the farm's farrier or vet.

6) Communication is encouraged. Feel free to call & leave a message. 913-856-5570

7) If your horse poops in the riding ring, round pen or saddling & grooming areas, please remove it.

8) Please put away all your belongings when you are finished working with your horse.

9) Please check lights and any doors or gates that you may have opened before leaving.

10) Please return all tools such as pitchforks, brooms, wheelbarrows, etc. to the place where they belong when you are done using them.

11) Please inform management of any farrier/vet/instructor visits as early as possible.

12) For our own protection, guests who will be riding must sign a liability release.

13) You are expected to be present for any vet/farrier visits, for general safety. Should you not be available, you may employ management services at prices listed on inclusion sheet.

14) We are all to respect each other's belongings. Do not help yourself to another's belongings, supplements or medications without permission.

15) Do not leave any items, which may cause injury to animals in any pasture or turnout area.

16) Do not use chemicals that are not environmentally safe. Never dump any wash water or empty any container in a pasture area or an area accessible to horses.

- 17) Please do not operate the spreader or tractor. If you have an uncontrollable urge to pick out your paddock, please use the wheelbarrow and empty it into the appropriate pile. Please do not leave the wheelbarrow full of manure or blocking any aisle or entranceways.
- 18) If someone asks for manure, they are free to take it out of the manure pile.
- 19) Do not modify any stall, structure, fencing or any other object, or rearrange any area of the barn without gaining permission of the barn owner.
- 20) Do not give any horse treats other than your own, without permission of the owner.
- 21) Do not ride any horse, or allow your companions to ride any horse that you do not own.
- 22) Please do not intentionally ride on the lawn or in the garden or flowerbeds.
- 23) Please do not bring barn cats.

These are common sense rules for a happier environment.
